

To whom it may concern, Please drop your efforts to restrict satellite radio-it's freedom of speech and pure competition. Not to mention the fact that the government should be using it's time and resources and issues that can actually benefit the country rather than trying to further line the pockets of Clear Channel and other FM mongrels.